

CONSCIENCE CARDS

Read each situation and decide if it shows a "YES" (right choice) or "NO" (wrong choice).

YES

NO

Begin to understand the rights of themselves and others for active community participation.

© LearnFromPlay | LearnFromPlay.com

You accidentally break a crayon that isn't yours. Do you tell the teacher or your friend?

You see someone being left out during group time. Do you invite them to join your group?

You find a toy at the park with someone else's name on it. Do you keep it because no one saw you?

Your sibling or friend gets blamed for something you did. Do you stay quiet to avoid getting in trouble?

You tripped someone during a game. Do you say sorry as it was an accident?

You realise the spelling words for your test are still on the board. Do you use them to make sure you get all the words right?

You notice a classmate left their chocolate bar on the bench. Do you take it and eat it?

You brake a plate when you are emptying the dishwasher. Do you put it in the rubbish and hope no one will notice?

You forget to do your home reading and the teacher asks if you did it. Do you say "yes" to avoid getting in trouble?

You're playing a game and win by bending the rules. Do you still celebrate your win?