

QUEST FOR THE TRUTH

| | |
|--------------------|--|
| November 20, 1981 | Northern Territory Supreme Court quashes first inquest and orders a new one. |
| January 31, 1986 | The matinee jacket believed to be Azaria's arrives at Alice Springs Court House. |
| June 2, 1987 | After a fourteen month Royal Commission Justice Trevor Morling hands down his finding and clears the Chamberlain's of all guilt or responsibility. |
| October 29, 1982 | Lindy, heavily pregnant, is found guilty of 1st Degree Murder and sentenced to life imprisonment. Michael received an 18 month suspended sentence. |
| August 24, 1980 | Azaria's jumpsuit, booties, nappy & singlet were found but the matinee jacket Lindy said Azaria was wearing was not found. |
| December 13, 1995 | The Third Inquest finds that neither Lindy nor Michael were in any way involved with Azaria's disappearance but the cause of death is left open. |
| June 11, 1980 | Azaria Chantel Loren Chamberlain is born. |
| November 17, 1982 | Kahlia was born in custody but went to live with foster parents Wayne & Jenny Miller and later Dr Owen and Jan Hughes. |
| February 7, 1986 | Senator Bob Collins and reporter Frank Alcorta force an Inquiry to be called. |
| June 12, 2012 | Coroner Morris announces that the cause of Azaria's death was by being taken by a dingo as the Chamberlains and the eyewitnesses claimed 32 years earlier. |
| August 17, 1980 | At 9 weeks and 4 days Azaria was killed at Ayres Rock. |
| September 15, 1988 | The Supreme Court of Darwin quashes all convictions and declares the Chamberlain's totally innocent and that Azaria was taken by a dingo. |
| February 24, 2012 | Coroner Morris holds the fourth Inquest into the death of Azaria. |
| February 2, 1982 | The Second Inquest starts with Lindy Chamberlain to trial on the charge of murdering Azaria and Michael Chamberlain as an accessory after the fact. |
| February 5, 1986 | Lindy positively identifies the matinee jacket proving she had not lied. |
| February 20, 1981 | Alice Springs Coroner Denis Barritt found that a wild dog or dingo took Azaria and no member of the Chamberlain family was responsible. |

HASS - ACHASSI097 - Sequence information about people's lives and events using a timeline.

